[Important] Advance Procedures on the Internet Application Site

Starting in AY 2022, the Graduate School of Environmental Studies will require applicants to register “My Page” on the website, register application details, and pay the application fee in advance (see attached document “Online Application Flow” on page22-25).

Please prepare all items required for the online application, devices such as a computer connected to the internet and a color printer, an email address, a portrait photo, and submit your application after confirming the payment method, documents to be submitted, etc. If you do not have a color printer at home, please check the printable environment in advance, such as a convenience store.

Note that you will need to register for an account before applying, so ensure you have enough time to complete the application process. Important information about the examination and other related issues may be sent by the University to your registered e-mail address. Therefore, please use an e-mail address that you check on a regular basis and has little chance to be changed or deleted.

International applicants who are eligible for enrollment in the Graduate School of Environmental Studies with student visa status can apply for “Special application for International students.” This brochure is a simple version of the guidelines for such applicants. More detailed information is provided in the Japanese version. Students whose mother tongue is not Japanese are recommended to contact their prospective supervisor to obtain more detailed information.

II. DOCTORAL DEGREE PROGRAM

1. Eligibility Requirements

Applicants must meet one of the requirements listed below:

- (1) Completion, or expected completion by March 31, 2023 of a Master’s Degree from a graduate school in Japan.
- (2) Completion, or expected completion by March 31, 2023 of graduate study at a graduate school in his/her home country or other countries. The qualification awarded must be recognized as the equivalent of a Master’s Degree in Japan.
- (3) Approved by the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology of Japan (MEXT) (1989 Ministry Bulletin, Vol. 118).
- (4) Completion of a program of study recognized by the Graduate School of Environmental Studies as equivalent to the completion of a Master’s Degree program from a Japanese university.

Note: Applicants wishing to apply based on the requirement (3) or (4) above will be given an eligibility examination. Please contact the Office of Student Affairs at the Graduate School of Environmental Studies for details. A separate application is required for the eligibility examination, to be submitted by December 12, 2022.

2. Departments Offering Doctoral Degree Programs

Department offering Doctoral Programs at the Graduate School of Environmental Studies are as follows:

- Department of Earth and Environmental Sciences
- Department of Environmental Engineering and Architecture
- Department of Social and Human Environment

3. Application Procedures

Period for Online Registration and Examination Fee Payment: December 21, 2022 – January 9, 2023

Application Period: January 4 – 4:00pm, January 10, 2023 (Only applications submitted by registered mail are acceptable.)

The application procedure will be completed by submitting the necessary application documents within the application period after completing registration and examination fee payment with the online application system.

The application procedure is only complete when the application documents arrive at the Graduate School of Environmental Studies. Registration and examination fee payment with the online application system alone does not complete the application procedures

The examination fee payment must be completed within four days from the day of registration. If a payment is not made within the period, the application registration will be automatically cancelled. (Please re-register if your registration is cancelled) *If the payment deadline is in less than four days, the payment deadline will be prioritized.

When submitting application documents by mail, please print out the “Address Sheet” in color via the online application system, attach it to a Kaku 2 envelope, and send it so it arrives by the application deadline.

When you are sending a set of application documents from overseas or sending an English score sheet separately from the application documents, send it by (express) registered mail or tracked post (EMS etc.) addressed to “9. Contact information”. It is not necessary to affix the on-line issued “Address Sheet”.

For details, see "STEP 6 (Send Required Documents)" on page 25.

All application documents shall be filled out either in Japanese or English.

Payment of Examination fee

Examination fee 30,000 Japanese Yen

MEXT scholarship recipients, as well as those who are expected to graduate from a master's program at Nagoya University are exempt from the examination fee. Please check "Exemptions from the examination fee" when applying.

Please note that if you select "Exempt from the examination fee " by mistake and submit your application documents without paying the examination fee, the documents will not be accepted.

*In addition to the examination fee, a service charge (about 500 yen) will be required.

*Examination Fee Refund Policy

The paid examination fee will not be refunded under any circumstances except in the following two cases.

(1) If the applicant does not complete the application procedures after paying the examination fee, or your application has not been accepted.

(2) If the applicant paid the examination fee in duplicate.

Because the process for the refund will require a large reduction in the amount due to remittance charge and a long time, please make the payment with special caution.

If you have any questions about the application procedures, please contact us at env@adm.nagoya-u.ac.jp.

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED:

(1) *Nagoya University Graduate School Application Form

(2) *Photograph Card (affix a photograph taken within the last 3 months)

The applicant must prepare and upload a portrait photo (up to 2MB), that is front facing, includes the upper body, no hats or backgrounds, and has been taken within 3 months of the application.

*(1)(2) The application form and photograph card must be printed in color on a single-sided sheet of A4 sized paper from the online application system.

(3) Graduate School of Environmental Studies Application form /Curriculum Vitae/Resume

If the address to where the notification of acceptance will be sent is different from the address registered on the online application, the contact information must be provided in the "Graduate School of Environmental Studies Application form".

(4) Reason for Application. (Download and fill out the prescribed form from the Graduate School website)

(5) *Diploma or Certificate of Graduation or Expected Graduation from the university where the applicant pursued graduate studies (originals only; photocopies are not acceptable. An English version is required if the certificate is written neither in Japanese nor in English).

(6) *Official Transcript (or Academic Record) from the university above (originals only; photocopies are not acceptable.

English version is required if the transcript is written neither in Japanese nor in English). Be sure to also submit the grade assessment standards.

*(5)(6) Note: For applicants who have graduated from a university in the People's Republic of China: We reserve the right to investigate applicants' credentials, for example the Degree Certificate or Expected Graduation Certificate, or the academic transcript submitted by an applicant through the China Academic Degrees and Graduate Education Development Center (CDGDC).

(7) Master's Thesis/Research Thesis

[Department of Earth and Environmental Sciences]

•Applicants for the Division of Earth and Planetary Sciences can submit an abstract of the Master's thesis. The length of the abstract should be 1 page in A4 size.

- Applicants for the Division of Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences can submit anyone from among (i) Master's degree thesis or it's abstract (if it has not been submitted, what you plan to submit), (ii) reprints of journal articles, and (iii) photocopies of proceedings of an international meeting.

4. Examination Method

(1) Department of Earth and Environmental Sciences

The Department of Earth and Environmental Sciences consists of the Division of Earth and Planetary Sciences and the Division of Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences.

The Division of Earth and Planetary Sciences consists of the following seven laboratories: Earth Environmental Systems, Geology and Geobiology, Geochemistry and Cosmochemistry, Earth and Planetary Physics, Ecology, Earth and Planetary Dynamics, and Chronology and Natural History.

The Division of Hydrospheric- Atmospheric Sciences consists of the following four laboratories: Global Environmental Variation, Climate Science, Global Geochemistry, and Global Water Cycle.

The examinees are required to contact their proposed supervisor(s) prior to application, so that the supervisor(s) can prepare for the examination, taking into consideration the examinees' language ability and the subjects that the examinees have already studied.

The following table shows the examination schedule.

Division	Date	Time	Examinations
Earth and Planetary Sciences	Tuesday, February 14, 2023	13:00 -	Oral Examination
Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences	Tuesday, February 14, 2023	13:00 -	Oral Examination

< Division of Earth and Planetary Sciences >

- 1) The examination will be carried out through an oral examination (about 30 minutes) .at lecture room on the 3rd floor of the building of graduate school of environmental studies (GSES). Applicants who are enrolled in the Master's Course of the Division of Earth and Planetary Sciences at Nagoya University will be interviewed for 15 minutes about their Master's program research and their Doctoral program research plan.
- 2) Other applicants will be asked to give a 15-minute presentation on their Master's program research and their Doctoral program research plan. This will be followed by a 15-minute interview to evaluate both research ability and English proficiency. Please prepare the powerpoint or pdf file for presentation and bring it stored in an USB memory.

Gathering place: Seminar room 3 on the 3rd floor of the building of GSES

Gathering time: 12:40

< Division of Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences >

- 1) The examination will be administered remotely (online) using a web conference system. For the online oral examination, each applicant must provide his/her own place in a quiet environment with no one in the same room and no one to be suspected of cheating. You may be asked to take a look for the entire room before the online exam.
- 2) Applicants who are enrolled in the Master's Course of the Division of Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences at Nagoya University will be asked to give a 10-minute presentation on their Doctoral program research plan. This will be followed by an interview based on the presentation. Other applicants will be asked to give a 30-minute presentation on their Master's program research (in 20 minutes) and their Doctoral program research plan (in 10 minutes). This will be followed by an interview based on the presentation.

- 3) Detailed examination times will be announced to each candidate by e-mail after the application is submitted. For examinees residing overseas, examination times other than the above may be set.
- 4) The presentation should be made using file sharing of the web conference system.

(2) Department of Environmental Engineering and Architecture

[Important Notices on the submission of the TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS score sheet]

(Only for applicants to the Department of Environmental Engineering and Architecture):

- As described in the “DOCUMENTS REQUIRED” section, submission of the score sheet at the time of application is strongly recommended, but if you do not have a valid score at the time of application, or if you wish to replace it with a new score, you may submit the score sheet separately to the address shown in “9. Contact information”, arriving no later than January 31, 16:00 using registered mail that marked as "Score Sheet enclosed" in red.
- Original scores of the TOEFL iBT “Home edition” test will also be accepted as a special measure in the entrance examination according to this application guideline.

(2.1) Sustainable Development Course

[Important Notices]

- Applicants should contact their prospective supervisor in advance. The questions in the examination are likely to take the applicants’ language ability and academic background into consideration.
- Applicants must submit a research proposal and a list of publications/conference presentations/awards/achievements as part of their application. Refer to the DOCUMENTS REQUIRED section for details.

[Examinations and schedule]

The schedule of examinations is shown in the following table. English and/or Japanese language will be used in the examinations. Regarding the “English Test”, refer to the “DOCUMENTS REQUIRED” section in “3. Application Procedures.”

【Special application for international students】

Date	Time	Exam.	Notes
February 1– February 7, 2023	9 : 00–18 : 00 (online)*1	Specialization Subject (Oral Examination) *1 *2

*1: For each examinee, an oral examination of about 30 minutes will be conducted online using Zoom. Details will be emailed by the prospective supervisor.

*2: Before applying, applicants are required to contact their prospective supervisor to determine the examination subjects (three fields) and conduct an oral examination about scholarship in each field. Additionally, applicants will be asked about their aspirations in the program, their research until now, and their research plan in the Doctorate program.

(2.2) Architecture Course

- Examinations and schedule

The schedule of examinations is shown in the following table. The detail of schedule will be announced after application.

Applicants should contact their prospective supervisor before application, as the examination may take into account the applicants' language skills and academic background. Applicants whose first language is English are exempted from submitting the original score sheets of TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS, and the score of "English Test" is given based on the results of "Oral Examination" and "Interview". For the exemption, the applicants should contact their prospective supervisor in advance by November 25, 2022, Friday.

Date	Time	Examination
From Friday, January 27, 2023 to Thursday, February 2, 2023 ^{*1}	1 hour	Oral Examination ^{*2*3}
Thursday, February 2, 2023 ^{*1}	14:00 ^{*4}	Interview ^{*2*5}

*1: Applicants are required to contact their prospective supervisor regarding the schedule of the examination that will be conducted online. The detail of exam schedule will be informed by the prospective supervisor.

*2: The "Oral Examination" and "Interview" will be conducted in English and/or Japanese using an online meeting system such as Microsoft Teams or Zoom. The schedule is determined by the prospective supervisor. Applicants should prepare a device such as a computer or tablet that can communicate with video and audio, as well as a network environment that allows online "Oral Examination" and "Interview" in a place where others are not present (such as a private room at home).

*3: The official score sheet of the TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS should be shown in the examination in the case of no submission at the time of application nor resubmission on the day of examination. In this case, the score sheet should be sent to the school by the designated deadline notified to an applicant.

*4: The schedule for the "Interview" may be altered, depending on the number of applicants. If the schedule is changed, the exact time will be announced before the "Interview".

*5: Applicants are required to give a presentation regarding their previous research and their research plan after joining the program. Questions of the "Interview" cover previous research, research plan, and topics related to the applicant's presentation.

(3) Department of Social and Human Environment

[Important Notices on the submission of the TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS score sheet]

- As described in the “DOCUMENTS REQUIRED” section, submission of the score sheet at the time of application is strongly recommended, but if you do not have a valid score at the time of application, or if you wish to replace it with a new score, you may submit the score sheet separately to the address shown in “9. Contact information”, arriving no later than January 31, 16:00 using registered mail that marked as "Score Sheet enclosed" in red.
- Original scores of the TOEFL iBT “Home edition” test will also be accepted as a special measure in the entrance examination according to this application guideline.

- Special Application for International Students

The entrance examination is scheduled as below. Be sure to consult your prospective supervisor(s) prior to application, because examination questions may be prepared according to your language skills and academic background. Consideration will be given to applicants who have significant difficulty in coming to Japan to take the examination, so be sure to consult your prospective supervisor(s) prior to application.

The written and oral examinations will be conducted face-to-face at an examination site prepared by Nagoya University. However, please note that if the university is unable to prepare the examination site due to a worsening of the new coronavirus infection (COVID-19), all examinations will be conducted online.

Date	Time	Examinations
Monday, February 13, 2023	9:30 - 11:30	Specialization Subject (Written Examination) *1
	14:00 -	Oral Examination*2
Tuesday, February 14, 2023	9:30 -	Oral Examination*2

*1 As for the Written Examination, you are required to answer the questions in your chosen academic field. Dictionaries and calculators are prohibited. See below for the range of questions in each academic field.

Academic Fields	Range of Questions
Environmental Policies	Applicants are required to answer questions related to Environmental Policy. In some cases, questions will be in part given in English.
Economic Environment	Questions are provided about your research topic in your master’s program.
Environmental Law and Politics	Applicants are required to answer questions given in English related to the study of Law and Politics.
Sociology	Applicants are required to answer questions related to Sociology. Questions are in part given in English.
Geography	Topics to be covered in the examination are those that are discussed in all fields of Geography. Articles in languages other than Japanese are included.

- General application (Self-recommendation admission) *1

The following table shows the examination schedule. The oral examinations will be conducted face-to-face at an examination site prepared by Nagoya University. However, please note that if the university is unable to prepare the examination site due to a worsening of the new coronavirus infection (COVID-19), the examinations will be conducted online.

Date	Time	Examinations
Monday, February 13, 2023	14:00-	Oral Examination*2
Tuesday, February 14, 2023	9:30 -	Oral Examination*2

*1 International applicants can also apply for “General application” the same as domestic applicants (please see the Japanese version of the application guideline for details). Applicants who wish to take the “self-recommendation admission” must get prior approval from their prospective supervisor.

Accordingly, applicants must consult with their prospective supervisor well before the date.

(Please note that applications are approved only in limited circumstances for those with high academic potential and achievement. Dual application to “special application for international students” and “general application”, including “self-recommendation admission”, is not allowed.) Applicants must mention the name of their prospective supervisor who approved their application on the application form.

*2 After applying, each applicant will be notified of the designated date and time and other details of the oral examination. When self-recommendation admission applicants have extreme difficulty to come and take the oral examination at Nagoya University, the applicant’s prospective supervisor may allow the applicant to take an online video interview. Applicants who wish to take this must have their prospective supervisor’s approval and mention it on the application form. Online video interviews are held during the same time period as the oral examinations as written above. It is the applicant’s responsibility to have access to a webcam and a good internet connection; if you fail to do so, the applicant may be considered as absent.
