4. Examination Method

(1) Department of Earth and Environmental Sciences

The Department of Earth and Environmental Sciences consists of the Division of Earth and Planetary Sciences and the Division of Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences. The Division of Earth and Planetary Sciences consists of the following seven laboratories: Earth Environmental Systems, Geology and Geobiology, Geochemistry and Cosmochemistry, Earth and Planetary Physics, Ecology, Earth and Planetary Dynamics, and Chronology and Natural History. The Division of Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences consists of the following four laboratories: Global Environmental Variation, Climate Science, Global Geochemistry, and Global Water Cycle.

Applicants are required to contact their prospective supervisor(s) prior to application, so that the supervisor(s) can prepare for the examination, taking the applicants' language ability and academic background into consideration.

Regarding the "English Test", please refer to the "DOCUMENTS REQUIRED at the time of examination".

【Division of Earth and Planetary Sciences】

The scholastic ability test will be conducted by the regular entrance examination (English, specialized subjects, and oral examination). For the English subject, the score will be calculated by converting the score of the TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS score sheet submitted.

The written and oral examinations will be conducted online using a web conference system. The written examination can be also taken face-to-face at the examination site at Nagoya University. Please select your preferred examination method for the written examination on the additional application form. However, if the university is unable to prepare the examination site due to the worsening of the corona infection situation, all examinations will be conducted online.

Detailed information about the method of the examination will be sent to each applicant by e-mail, after the application is submitted

Date	Time	Examination
Thursday, August19, 2021	10:00 -11:30	Written Examination (Specialization subject) *1
Friday, August20, 2021	13:00 -17:00	Oral Examination*2 and Interview*3

*1: Applicants will be questioned on fundamental aspects of their academic field, taking the applicants' language ability and academic background into consideration. The examination will be conducted either in Japanese or English as appropriate for the applicants' language ability.

*2: Applicants will be asked to answer questions about their undergraduate research and general research interests in English and/or Japanese.

*3: This interview will be conducted to evaluate the English proficiency of the applicants if the oral examination is conducted in Japanese. The interview consists of questions about the applicants' motivation for applying and their research plans after enrollment.

[How to submit score sheets]

The score sheet must be submitted to the Office of Student Affairs in the same manner as described in "3. Application Procedures", and must arrive no later than August 17, 2021 (Tuesday). If the score sheet is ready at the time of application, it may be enclosed in the envelope containing the necessary documents, and submitted to the Office.

[Examination site]

Written examination: A place where you can be held in a quiet environment and where you will not be suspected of cheating on the examination (online examination), or an examination site at Nagoya University (face-to-face examination). Applicants are required to specify whether they wish to take the online or face-to-face examination on the additional application form and send it at the time of application.

However, if the university's examination site cannot be prepared due to the worsening of the corona infection situation, all examinations will be conducted online.

Oral examination: A place where you can be held in a quiet environment and where you will not be suspected of cheating on the examination.

【Division of Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences】

The scholastic ability test is conducted by the regular entrance examination (English, specialized subjects, and oral examination) or the Self-Recommendation entrance examination (English and oral examination) for students who are not from science-related departments. Regarding the "English Test", please refer to the 3. Application Procedures, DOCUMENTS REQUIRED. The original TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS score sheet taken on or after August 1, 2019, will be converted into the score for the test subject "English". Documents other than those listed above (e.g. TOEIC-IP test) will not be accepted. If a valid score sheet is not submitted, the score for the examination subject "English" will be zero. Applicants who are unable to prepare a valid TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS score sheet by the designated time may apply for the special English examination conducted by the Graduate School (Division of Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences) by filling in the necessary information on the "Additional Application Form (Division of Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences)". Applicants who can prepare a valid TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS score sheet by the designated time should not take the special English examination. Applicants who take the Self-Recommendation entrance examination must submit the Self-Recommendation Form (a form of the Graduate School).

Under Nagoya University's guidelines on activities for COVID-19, the oral examination might be conducted remotely (online). Also, online examinations may be held at times other than those listed below.

It is recommended to contact your prospective advisor in advance regarding your desired research theme.

The following table shows the examination schedule and venue. Oral examinations will be conducted in the Environmental Studies Hall. Applicants should arrive 10 minutes prior to the start of the examination and wait until called.

Date	Time	Examination & venue
Tuesday, August 3, 2021	13:00 –	Special English Examination *1 Lecture Hall, Room #125 (1st floor)
Thursday, August 12 – Wednesday, August 18, 2021		Online Examination for Specialization subject *2, *3
Thursday, August 19, 2021	13:30 –	Oral Examination and Interview *4 Room #326 (3rd floor)
Friday, August 20, 2021	9:00 –	Oral Examination and Interview *4 Room #326 (3rd floor)

*1: Applicants must fill out and submit the "Additional Application Form (Division of Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences)" and be approved to take the examination. Those who already have a valid TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS score sheet are not eligible to take the examination. The TOEFL ITP provided by Educational Testing Service will be used.

- *2: The examination will be conducted as a remote (online) examination using the internet during the period (about 30 minutes). Please fill out and submit the "Additional Admission Application Form (Division of Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences)". Applicants will be contacted by the faculty member you wish to apply to between July 14 and 23. Applicants need to discuss the schedule of the examination for specialization subject and the details of the internet-based remote examination. Applicants will be questioned on fundamental aspects of their academic field, taking the applicants' language ability and academic background into consideration. The examination will be conducted either in English and/or Japanese.
- *3: All applicants other than those taking the special English examinations must prepare the original TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS score sheet and present it during the time of the examination for specialization subject as instructed. Also, an oral examination may be held during the examination for specialization subjects to assess the candidate's English ability.
- *4: If it is difficult to come to Nagoya University, a remote (online) examination can be select. Applicants who wish to take the online examination should fill out and submit the " Additional Application Form (Division of Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences)". Applicants who wish to take the online examination will be notified the schedule of the examination when the exam voucher is sent. Applicants are asked to answer questions about their undergraduate research, the applicants' motivation for applying and their research plans after enrollment in English and/or Japanese.

Submission for score sheet of English test: For the submission of the score sheet, fill in the appropriate sections of the " Additional Admission Application Form (Division of Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences)". If you can prepare a valid TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS score sheet at the time of application, submit it to the Graduate School together with the Application Form. If you are unable to prepare the score sheets at the time of application, but are able to prepare the score sheets by the day of the professional examination or the oral examination for the Self-Recommendation examination, you may present the original score sheet at the time of those examinations. In such a case, the original score sheet must be submitted to the Graduate School in the same manner as described in "3. Application Procedures", with "Score Sheet Enclosed" written in red on the front of the envelope, no later than Wednesday, August 25, 2021.

(2) Department of Environmental Engineering and Architecture

For the fall admission of the master's program, examinations are conducted only for applicants to the Sustainable Development Course.

Important Notices on the submission of the TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS score sheet

(Only for applicants to the Department of Environmental Engineering and Architecture):

- As described in the “DOCUMENTS REQUIRED” section, submission of the score sheet at the time of application is strongly recommended, but (re-)submission on the day of the exam is acceptable. In this case, the score sheet should be sent before the designated deadline notified to an applicant.
- Original scores of the TOEFL iBT “Home edition” test will also be accepted as a special measure in the entrance examination according to this application guideline. In this case, submit it with a pledge signed by the applicant.

(2.1) Sustainable Development Course

[Important Notices]

- Applicants should contact their prospective supervisor in advance. The questions in the examination are likely to take the applicants' language ability and academic background into consideration.
- Applicants must submit an essay entitled “SDGs and me” and a list of publications/awards/achievements as a part of their application. Refer to the DOCUMENTS REQUIRED section for details.

Note

- 1) Applicants should arrive 10 minutes prior to the start of the examination and wait until called.
- 2) A whiteboard and a PC projector can be used for the presentation. Microsoft Power Point (2016, Japanese version) installed on a Windows PC is available.

- 3) English and/or Japanese language will be used in the Oral Examination.
- 4) Applicants who are enrolled in the Master's Course of the Division of Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences at Nagoya University will be asked to give a 10 minutes presentation on their Doctoral program research plan. This will be followed by an interview based on the presentation.
- 5) Other applicants will be asked to give a 30-minute presentation on their Master's program research (in 20 minutes) and their Doctoral program research plan (in 10 minutes). This will be followed by an interview based on the presentation.
- 6) Applicants are required to take an exam at the Environmental Studies Hall, Nagoya University. If it is difficult to come to Nagoya University, a remote (online) examination can be select. Applicants who wish to take the online examination should fill out and submit the " Additional Application Form (Division of Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences)". Applicants who wish to take the online examination will be notified the schedule of the examination when the exam voucher is sent.

(2) Department of Environmental Engineering and Architecture

Examination for foreign students will be held in the following schedule.

Examination Schedule	Course	Date
Schedule A	Sustainable Development Course	August 3–16, 2021
Schedule B	Architecture Course	August 17-19 2021

Important Notices on the submission of the TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS score sheet

(Only for applicants to the Department of Environmental Engineering and Architecture):

- As described in the “DOCUMENTS REQUIRED” section, submission of the score sheet at the time of application is strongly recommended, but (re-)submission on the day of the exam is acceptable. In this case, the score sheet should be sent before the designated deadline notified to an applicant.
- Original score of the TOEFL iBT “Home edition” test will also be accepted as a special measure in the entrance examination according to this application guideline. In this case, submit it with a pledge signed by the applicant.

(2.1) Sustainable Development Course

[Important Notices]

- Applicants should contact their prospective supervisor in advance. The questions in the examination are likely to take the applicants’ language ability and academic background into consideration.
- Applicants must submit a research proposal and a list of publications/awards/achievements as a part of their application. Refer to the DOCUMENTS REQUIRED section for details.

① General information

Examination for foreign students will be held according to the Examination Schedule A

② Examinations and schedule

The schedule of examinations is shown in the following table. English and/or Japanese language will be used in the examinations. Regarding the “English Test”, refer to the “DOCUMENTS REQUIRED” section in “3. Application Procedures” and to the footnote 3 (*3) in the following Table.

【Special application for international students】

Date	Time	Exam.	Notes
August 3–16, 2021	9 : 00 – 18 : 00 (online)*1	Oral Examination (Specialization Subject) *1 *2	*3

*1: For each examinee, an oral examination of about 30 minutes will be conducted online using Zoom. Details will be emailed by the prospective supervisor.

*2: Before applying, applicants are required to contact their prospective supervisor to determine the examination subjects (three fields) and conduct an oral examination about scholarship in each field. Additionally, applicants will be asked about their aspirations in the program, their research until now, and their research plan in the Doctorate program.

*3: TOEIC/TOEFL/IELTS English score sheet: Examinees who wish to (re-)submit a score sheet on the day of the examination must inform the person in charge by the day before the examination. The admission staff or prospective supervisor will instruct the applicant of the details for submission, including the deadline. If the original score sheet is already available when an applicant sends the application documents, it is preferable to enclose and send it in advance.

(2.2) Architecture Course

① General information

Examination for international students will be held according to Examination Schedule B.

② Examinations and schedule

The schedule of examinations is shown in the following table. Examinations will be conducted in English and/or Japanese. Applicants should contact their prospective supervisor before application, as the examination may take into account the applicants' language skills and academic background. Applicants whose first language is English are exempted from submitting the original score sheets of TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS, and the score of "English Test" is given based on the results of "Oral Examination" and "Interview". For the exemption, the applicants should contact their prospective supervisor in advance by June 25, 2021, Friday.

Date	Time	Student Applicant	Non-Student Applicant	Location
Tuesday, August 17, 2021	10:00 - 16:30	Oral Examination*1*2	Oral Examination*1*2	To be announced*4
Wednesday, August 18, 2021	9:00 - 12:00	Oral Examination*1*2	Oral Examination*1*2	To be announced*4
Thursday, August 19, 2021	13:30 - *5	Interview*3	Interview*3	To be announced*4

*1: The "Oral Examination" will be held on either August 17th or 18th using an online meeting system such as Microsoft Teams or Zoom. Applicants should contact the prospective supervisor. The schedule is determined by the prospective supervisor. Applicants should prepare a device such as a computer or a tablet that can communicate with video and audio, as well as a network environment that allows online "Oral Examination" in a place where others are not present (such as a private room at home).

*2: The official score sheet of the TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS should be shown in the examination in the case of no submission at the time of application nor resubmission on the day of examination. In this case, the score sheet should be sent to the school by the designated deadline notified to an applicant.

*3: Applicants are requested to answer questions mainly relating to their motivations, learning and research plans after admission, and related topics.

*4: The location to connect and schedule will be announced by the prospective supervisor.

*5: The schedule for the "Interview" may be altered, depending on the number of applicants. If the schedule is changed, the exact time will be announced before the "Interview".

(3) Department of Social and Human Environment

- Special application for international students

The entrance examination is scheduled as below. Please make sure to consult your prospective academic supervisor(s) prior to application, because examination questions may be prepared according to your language skills and academic background.

Date	Time	Examinations
Monday, August 9 - Wednesday, August 11, 2021	9:00 -18:00	Oral Examination(online) *1

*1 After applying, each applicant will be notified of the designated date and time, and other details of the oral examination.

As for the Oral Examination, you are required to answer the questions regarding, among others, your previous studies, the research proposal, and specialized knowledge in your chosen academic field.

- General application (Self-recommendation admission) *1

Date	Time	Examinations
Monday, August 9 - Wednesday, August 11, 2021	9:00 -18:00	Oral Examination(online) *2

*1 International student applicants can also apply for “General application” the same as domestic applicants (please see the Japanese version of the application guideline for details). Applicants who wish to take the “self-recommendation admission” must get prior approval from their prospective supervisor by the time the application documents are submitted.

Accordingly, applicants must consult with their prospective supervisor well before the date.

(Please note that applications are approved only in limited circumstances for those with high academic potential and achievement. Dual application to “special application for international students” and “general application”, including “self-recommendation admission”, is not allowed.) Applicants must mention the name of their prospective supervisor who approved their application on the application form.

*2 After applying, each applicant will be notified of the designated date and time, and other details of the oral examination.

5. Notification of Selection Results

Notification Date: Friday, September 3, 2021

Letter of Acceptance/Rejection of Application will be sent by post to each applicant.

6. Enrollment Procedures

Successful applicants will be notified of enrollment procedures by post in the beginning of September 2021.

(1) Registration Date: Wednesday, September 21, 2021 (Scheduled)

(2) Venue of Registration: Successful applicants must register in person at the Office of Student Affairs, Graduate School of Environmental Studies.

7. Registration and Tuition Fees

(1) Registration Fee: JPY 282,000 (estimated)

*To be paid by the date of registration stated above.

(2) Tuition Fees: JPY 267,900 (estimated) per semester

*To be paid on a per semester basis. Tuition fees for the Spring Semester are to be paid in May (in April from the second year onwards), and those for the Fall Semester in October. In the event of a revision in the tuition fees, the new fees will be applied as effective from the date of revision.

Note: Registration and tuition fees are exempted for students receiving the Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship.

8. Important Notice

Under no circumstances will the school allow changes to the applicants' documents or refund the application fee. Before application, applicants are strongly recommended to contact their prospective supervisor.
