[Important] Advance Procedures on the Internet Application Site

The Graduate School of Environmental Studies requires applicants to register “My Page” on the website, register application details, and pay the application fee in advance (see attached document “Online Application Flow” on page28-31).

Please prepare all items required for the online application, devices such as a computer connected to the internet and a color printer, an email address, a portrait photo, and submit your application after confirming the payment method, documents to be submitted, etc. If you do not have a color printer at home, please check the printable environment in advance, such as a convenience store.

Note that you will need to register for an account before applying, so ensure you have enough time to complete the application process. Important information about the examination and other related issues may be sent by the University to your registered e-mail address. Therefore, please register an e-mail address that you check on a regular basis and has little chance to be changed or deleted.

International applicants who are eligible for enrollment in the Graduate School of Environmental Studies with student visa status can apply for “Special application for International students.” This brochure is a simple version of the guidelines for such applicants. More detailed information is provided in the Japanese version. Applicants should contact their prospective supervisor in advance.

II. DOCTORAL DEGREE PROGRAM

1. Eligibility Requirements

Applicants must meet one of the requirements listed below:

- (1) Completion, or expected completion by September 30, 2025 of a Master’s Degree from a graduate school in Japan.
- (2) Completion, or expected completion by September 30, 2025 of graduate study at a graduate school in his/her home country or other countries. The qualification awarded must be recognized as the equivalent of a Master’s Degree in Japan.
- (3) Approved by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology of Japan (MEXT) (1989 Ministry Bulletin, Vol. 118).
- (4) Completion of a program of study recognized by the Graduate School of Environmental Studies as equivalent to the completion of a Master’s Degree program from a Japanese university.

Note: Applicants wishing to apply through the requirement (3) or (4) above will be given an eligibility examination. Please contact the Office of Student Affairs at the Graduate School of Environmental Studies for details. A separate application is required for the eligibility examination and to be submitted by June 13, 2025

2. Departments Offering Doctoral Degree Programs

Departments offering Doctoral Programs at the Graduate School of Environmental Studies are as follows:

- Department of Earth and Environmental Sciences
- Department of Environmental Engineering and Architecture
- Department of Social and Human Environment

3. Application Procedures

- Period for Online Registration and Examination Fee Payment: June 17 – 12:00pm, July 7, 2025
- Application Period: July 1 - 4:00pm, July 7, 2025 (Submission to the Office: 9:00-12:00, 1:00-4:00pm, Registered mail: must arrive no later than 4:00pm, July 7)

The application procedure will be completed by submitting the necessary application documents within the application period after completing registration and examination fee payment with the online application system.

*The TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS original score sheet can be submitted separately to the Office of Student Affairs by 4:00pm, August 1, 2025.

Registration and examination fee payment with the online application system alone does not complete the application procedures

The examination fee payment must be completed within four days from the day of registration. If a payment is not made within the period, the application registration will be automatically cancelled. (Please re-register if your registration is cancelled)

*If the payment deadline is in less than four days, the payment deadline will be prioritized.

When submitting application documents by mail, please print out the “Address Sheet” in color via the online application system, attach it to a Kaku 2 envelope, and send it so it arrives by the application deadline.

When you are sending a set of application documents from overseas or sending an English score sheet separately from the application documents, send it by (express) registered mail or tracked post (EMS etc.) addressed to “9. Contact information”. It is not necessary to affix the on-line issued “Address Sheet” but necessary to indicate the name of the enclosed document on the envelope.

For details, see "STEP 6 (Send Required Documents)" on page31.

All application documents shall be filled out either in Japanese or English.

Payment of Examination fee

Examination fee 30,000 Japanese Yen

MEXT scholarship recipients, as well as those who are expected to graduate from a master’s program at Nagoya University are exempt from the examination fee. Please check “Exemptions from the examination fee” when applying.

Please note that if you select "Exempt from the examination fee" by mistake and submit your application documents without paying the examination fee, the documents will not be accepted.

*In addition to the examination fee, a service charge (about 500 yen) will be required.

*Examination Fee Refund Policy

The paid examination fee will not be refunded under any circumstances except in the following two cases.

- (1) If the applicant does not complete the application procedures after paying the examination fee, or your application has not been accepted.
- (2) If the applicant paid the examination fee in duplicate.

Because the process for the refund will require a large reduction in the amount due to remittance charge and a long time, please make the payment with special caution.

If you have any questions about the application procedures, please contact us at env@t.mail.nagoya-u.ac.jp

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED:

- (1) *Nagoya University Graduate School Application Form
- (2) *Photograph Card (affix a photograph taken within the last 3 months)
The applicant must prepare and upload a portrait photo (up to 2MB), that is front facing, includes the upper body, no hats or backgrounds, and has been taken within 3 months of the application.
- *(1)(2) The application form and photograph card must be printed in color on a single-sided sheet of A4 sized paper from the online application system.
- (3) Graduate School of Environmental Studies Application form /Curriculum Vitae/Resume
If the address to where the notification of acceptance will be sent is different from the address registered on the online application, the contact information must be provided in the "Graduate School of Environmental Studies Application form".
- (4) Reason for Application
- (5) *Diploma or Certificate of Graduation or Expected Graduation from the university where the applicant pursued graduate studies (originals only; photocopies are not acceptable. An English version is required if the certificate is written neither in Japanese nor in English).
- (6) *Official Transcript (or Academic Record) from the university above (originals only; photocopies are not acceptable. English version is required if the transcript is written neither in Japanese nor in English). Be sure to also submit the grade assessment standards.
- *(5)(6) Note: For applicants who have graduated from a university in the People's Republic of China: We reserve the right to investigate applicants' credentials, for example the Degree Certificate or Expected Graduation Certificate, or the academic transcript submitted by an applicant through the China Academic Degrees and Graduate Education Development Center (CDGDC).
- (7) Master's Thesis/Research paper
[Department of Earth and Environmental Sciences]
  - Applicants to the Department of Earth and Environmental Sciences can submit any one from among (i) Master's thesis or its abstract, (ii) reprints of paper published in an academic journal or abstracts of conference presentations, and (iii) if the applicant has not submitted a master's thesis, a summary of the applicant's research in any format on a single side sheet of A4 paper.
[Department of Environmental Engineering and Architecture]
  - Applicants to the Sustainable Development Course will be given an instruction by their prospective supervisor.
  - Applicants to the Architecture Course can submit an abstract of the Master's thesis (if it has not been submitted, what you plan to submit). The length of the abstract should be 1000-2000 words in A4 size. A summary of the Master's thesis will be accepted in place of the abstract. If there is no Master's thesis, submit the research and work to be considered for the Master's degree in the same manner as above.
[Department of Social and Human Environment]
  - Applicants to the Department of Social and Human Environment can submit the Master's thesis. If it has not been submitted, a summary of the research will be accepted (about 4000 words in A4 size).
- (8) Declaration of applicable specific categories for “deemed exports” under the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act
With the clarification of the scope of control for “deemed exports” under the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act (“FEFTA”), a part of provision of sensitive technology to faculty members and students by universities and research institutions has become subject to control under the FEFTA. Consistently with this change, when applying for Nagoya University, it is required to submit a “Declaration of applicable specific categories” based on the “Flowchart for determining applicable specific categories.” some applicants will also be required to submit a “Letter of confirmation” at the time of their recruitment or admission.

- (9) TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS original score sheet (Required only for applicants to the Department of Environmental Engineering and Architecture, and applicants for self-recommendation admission to the Department of Social and Human Environment)

Applicants must submit an original score sheet of the “Test Taker Score Report” of TOEFL iBT (including Home Edition, not accepting MyBest scores), the “Official Score Certificate” of TOEIC (Listening & Reading test), or the “Test Report Form” of IELTS (Academic Module). Only scores of the examinations taken on or after August 1, 2023, will be accepted. A copy, PDF Score Report or a score sheet submitted directly from the institution shall not be accepted. The original score sheet will not be returned. For more details, please refer to the “4. Examination Method”.

In case of the Architecture course in the Department of Environmental Engineering and Architecture, however, applicants whose first language is English are exempted from submitting the original score sheets of TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS.

In case of applicants for the self-recommendation admission to the Department of Social and Human Environment, graduates and soon-to-be graduates from an institution of higher education whose language of instruction is English do not need to submit a TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS original score sheet.

- (10) Additional Application Form (required only for applicants to the Division of Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences in the Department of Earth and Environmental Sciences)

- (11) Research Proposal (required only for applicants to the Department of Social and Human Environment)

The research proposal should include the following: 1) background of the problem and objectives of the research, 2) a review of the existing literature, and 3) methodology and methods of the research. The proposal should refer to the relevant literature where appropriate. It shall be written in either Japanese or English.

- (12) Self-recommendation letter (Applicants for self-recommendation admission to the Department of Social and Human Environment)

Applicants for the self-recommendation admission in the General Application to the Department of Social and Human Environment must write a self-recommendation letter. (Form 12, A4 size single-sided printing)

- (13) A photocopy of your residence card or passport

Those applicants who are currently residing in Japan must submit a photocopy of their residence card (both sides). Oversea resident must submit a passport page with the ID photo.

- (14) Applicants receiving a scholarship from the Japanese Government (MEXT) must provide a Certificate of Status issued by the university where they are currently enrolled. However, the applicant who is presently enrolled in Nagoya University does not need to do it.

4. Examination Method

(1) Department of Earth and Environmental Sciences

The Department of Earth and Environmental Sciences consists of the Division of Earth and Planetary Sciences and the Division of Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences. The Division of Earth and Planetary Sciences consists of the following seven laboratories: Earth Environmental Systems, Geology and Geobiology, Geochemistry and Cosmochemistry, Earth and Planetary Physics, Ecology, Earth and Planetary Dynamics, and Chronology and Natural History. The Division of Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences consists of the following four laboratories: Global Environmental Variation, Climate Science, Global Geochemistry, and Global Water Cycle.

Applicants are required to contact their prospective supervisor(s) prior to application, so that the supervisor(s) can prepare for the examination, taking the applicants' language ability and academic background into consideration. Online examinations may be held at times other than those listed below.

(1.1) Division of Earth and Planetary Sciences

The oral examinations will be conducted face-to-face at the examination site at Nagoya University.

The following table shows the examination schedule.

Date	Time	Examination	Location *2
Monday, August 18, 2025	9:00 – 12:00	Oral Examination *1	Seminar room No. 1 Environmental Studies building, 3 rd floor

*1 English and/or Japanese language will be used in the Oral Examination.

Applicants will be asked to give a 15-minute presentation on their Master's program research and their Doctoral program research plan. This will be followed by a 15-minute interview to evaluate both research ability and English proficiency.

*2 Gathering time; 10min before the start of the examination

(1.2) Division of Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences

It is strongly recommended to contact your prospective advisor in advance regarding your desired research theme. The following table shows venue and time of the oral examination schedule. Oral examinations will be conducted in the Environmental Studies Building.

Date	Time	Examination	Location
Monday, August 18, 2025	13:00 –	Oral Examination	Room 111 (Meeting room No. 1), Environmental Studies Building, 1 st floor

- 3) The oral examination will be conducted in English and/or Japanese.
- 4) Applicants who are enrolled in the Master's program of the Division of Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences, Department of Earth and Environmental Sciences at Nagoya University and wish to enter the fall semester in October 2025 will be asked to give a 10-minute presentation on the research plan. This will be followed by an interview based on the presentation. Other applicants will be asked to give a 30-minute presentation on their Master's program research (in 20 minutes) and the research plan (in 10 minutes). This will be followed by an interview based on the presentation.
- 5) Applicants are required to take an exam at the Environmental Studies Building, Nagoya University. If it is difficult to come to Nagoya University, a remote (online) examination can be selected. Applicants who wish to take the online examination should fill out and submit the "Additional Application Form (Division of Hydrospheric-Atmospheric Sciences)". The examination schedule and other details will be notified by e-mail by August 1.

(2) Department of Environmental Engineering and Architecture

Examinations for international students will be held according to the following schedule.

Course	Date
Sustainable Development Course	August 20 – 21, 2025
Architecture Course	August 19 – 22, 2025

Important Notice on the submission of the TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS score sheet

(Only for applicants to the Department of Environmental Engineering and Architecture):

- As described in the “DOCUMENTS REQUIRED” section, submission of the score sheet with application documents is recommended. However, you may not have a valid score at the deadline for application. In that case, you may submit the score sheet separately, sealed in an envelope to the address shown in “9. Contact information” by the deadline for the score sheet with the rubrication “Score Sheet enclosed” on the envelope. Please note that replacement score sheets after submission will not be permitted.

(2.1) Sustainable Development Course

[Important Notices]

Applicants who wish to take the “self-recommendation admission” must get prior approval from their prospective supervisor.

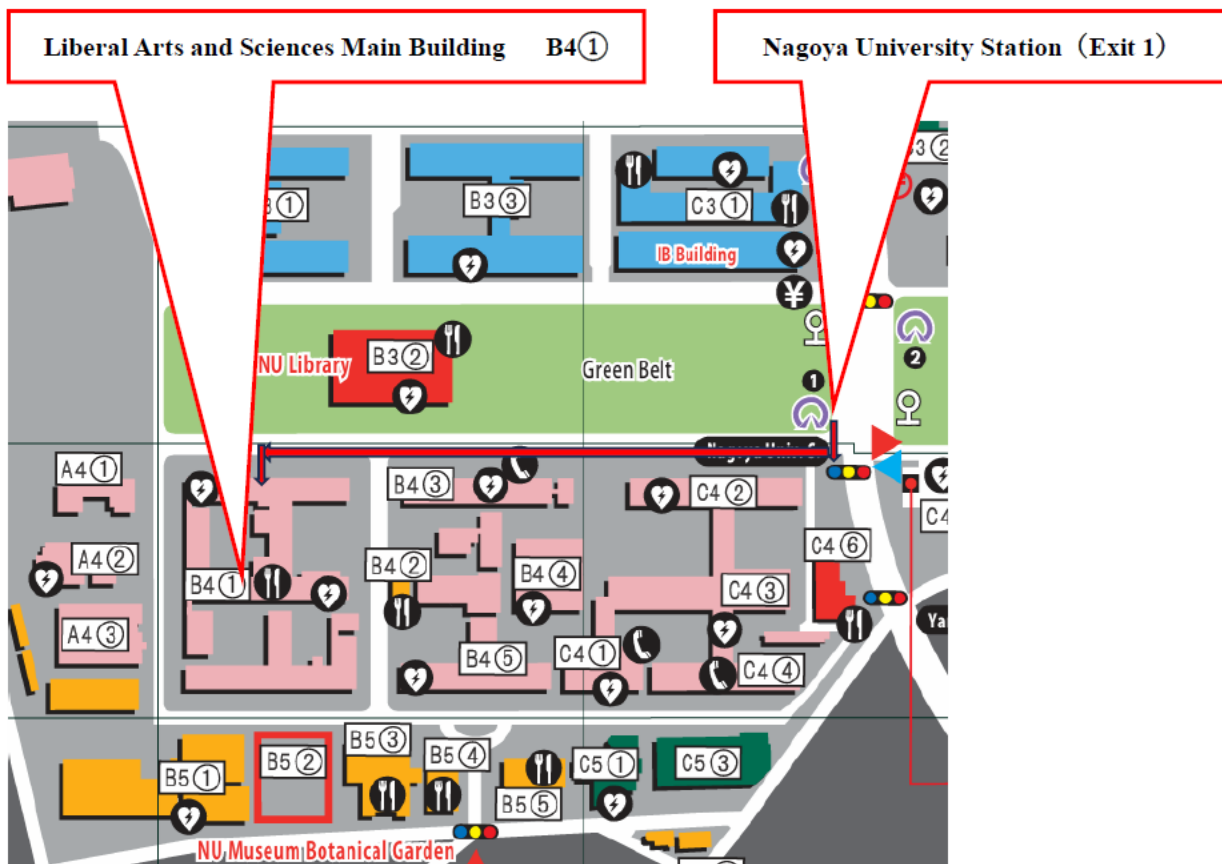

Accordingly, applicants must consult with their prospective supervisor well before the date.

(Please note that applications are approved only in limited circumstances for those with high academic potential and achievement. Dual application to “special application for international students” and “general application”, including “self-recommendation admission”, is not allowed.) Applicants must mention the name of their prospective supervisor who approved their application on the application form.

*2 After applying, each applicant will be notified of the designated date and time and other details of the oral examination. When self-recommendation admission applicants have extreme difficulty to come and take the oral examination at Nagoya University, the applicant's prospective supervisor may allow the applicant to take an online video interview. Applicants who wish to take this must have their prospective supervisor's approval and mention it on the application form. Online video interviews are held during the same time period as the oral examinations as written above. It is the applicant's responsibility to have access to a webcam and a good internet connection; if you fail to do so, the applicant may be considered as absent.

- Access to the location of the written examination of Department of Social and Human Environment
Liberal Arts and Sciences Main Building, 4th floor, Room C43.

5. Clinical Environmental Studies Program Information

Clinical Environmental Studies is a new concept of environmental studies proposed by the Graduate School of Environmental Studies, and refers to interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary research and practice that directly contributes to solving issues related to regional sustainability. The Clinical Environmental Studies Program is a program to develop human resources capable of such research and practice in the doctoral course, and is mainly conducted by the Education and Research Center for Sustainable Co-Development affiliated with the Graduate School of Environmental Studies. In the On-Site Research Training program, students go into the field to discover local issues and propose prescriptions for solving them; in the SDGs basic seminar, students learn what clinical environmental studies is and the basic content of sustainable development and the SDGs, and also consider how their own research topics can contribute to achieving the SDGs. Students who have earned the prescribed credits will receive a certificate of completion.

- This program is designed for students who wish to enter or advance to the doctoral program of the Graduate School of Environmental Studies, in addition to the curriculum of their own major or course of study.
- Those who wish to take this course must fill in ✓ in the designated field on the application form.
- The main purpose of this program is to nurture students who are willing to broaden their perspectives not only through study and research in their specialized fields, but also through active participation in clinical environmental studies, which contributes to solving regional issues through collaboration among different fields.
- Completion requirement: 5 credits of On-Site Research Training* (3 credits) and SDGs basic seminar** (2 credits).
- Upon completion of the program, students will receive a certificate of completion in addition to their degree.
- The following are the two semesters courses related to the Clinical Environmental Studies Program. All of them are common courses of the Graduate School.

*On-Site Research Training (3 credits): In a domestic field, a team consisting of faculty members and students from different fields will proceed with practical training from problem identification to the formulation of solutions.

**SDGs Basic Seminar (2 credits): Students learn what clinical environmental studies is and the basic content of sustainable development and the SDGs, and consider how their own research topics can contribute to the achievement of the SDGs.

6. Notification of Selection Results

Notification Date: 13:00pm, Tuesday, September 2, 2025 (scheduled)

Successful applicants' examination numbers will be posted on the website of the Graduate School of Environmental Studies.

Letter of Acceptance/Rejection of Application will also be sent by post to each applicant at a later date.

7. Enrollment Procedures

Successful applicants will be notified of enrollment procedures by post in the beginning of September 2025.

8. Admission and Tuition Fees

- (1) Admission Fee: JPY 282,000 (estimated)

*To be paid by the date of registration stated above.

Note: MEXT scholarship recipients and those who are expected to graduate from a master's program at Nagoya University are exempt from the admission fee.

- (2) Tuition Fees: JPY 267,900 (estimated) per semester

*To be paid on a per semester basis. Tuition fees for the Spring Semester are to be paid in May, and those for the Fall Semester in November. In the event of a revision in the tuition fees, the new fees will be applied as effective from the date of revision.

Note: MEXT scholarship recipients are exempt from the tuition fee.

9. Important Notice

- Under no circumstances will the school allow changes to the applicants' documents or refund the examination fee.
- Before application, applicants are strongly recommended to contact their prospective supervisor. Please refer to the following website (go to "Faculty Members") for more information on the research interests of our faculty members.
